“Wonderful Evening of Oz” Gala to Benefit the Firehouse Arts Center

Pleasanton Cultural Arts Foundation (PCAF) is launching the community fundraising program for the Firehouse Arts Center with a gala event on Friday, February 29, 2008 at the Pleasanton Senior Center.

“A Wonderful Evening of Oz” will begin at 7:00 pm with a hosted bar and hors d’oeuvres and will feature live entertainment as well as a display of art by local artists. The dinner and program will begin at 8:00 with a sit-down gourmet dinner catered by “A Tasteful Affair”. Emcee Brad Kinney will lead guests through a live auction featuring unique items and experiences. Dancing to the music provided by Brad Kinney Productions will top off this extraordinary evening.

Event Committee Chair, Joyce Shapiro, notes “The Firehouse Arts Center will be a wonderful addition to our downtown and I encourage everyone in the community to support the project. One way to do this is by attending the “Wonderful Evening of Oz” event we are planning. We will be providing our guests with an extraordinary experience, while raising needed funds for the Firehouse Arts Center.”

Tickets are now on sale at $125 per person or $1,000 for a table of 8. Corporate sponsorship opportunities are also available. To find out more, purchase tickets or discuss sponsorship opportunities, contact Debbie Look at (925) 846-1007.

Background:

The Firehouse Arts Center will give the city a unique, much-needed public visual and performing arts venue for all of its residents. With its 240-seat theater, art galleries and classrooms, the Center will become a true destination and make a vital contribution to the city’s economic and cultural vitality.
